Lochs 1

Lochs and Reservoirs - Gunknowe Loch in Tweedbank and link to Abbotsford House and Visitor Centre

Hard path all the way around the pond. Level tarmac paths in park area around park. A wide variety of wildfowl. The nature trail was created by Tweedbank Primary School.

Start and finish: Gunknowe Loch car park, Tweedbank or Abbotsford House Visitor Centre car park.

Distance: 1.5km/1 mile
Terrain: Flat hard surfaced tarmac paths.
Parking: Car park by loch. Ramp access is on left of car park if facing pond. Wide tarmac ramp to pondside.
Toilets: Nearest Wheelchair access RADAR lock toilets - Galashiels, Melrose.
Facilities: Bench seats, café, information boards.

1. From Abbotsford follow the paths to reach the pond and walk around the pond with the pond on your left.
2. Turn right and walk around the side of the pond.
3. After an open area with bench seats by the pond, turn right, walk past the play area and take the second left.
4. Go straight on (The full nature trail turns left here).
5. Follow the tarmac path with the large grass area on your right. You join the trail again at the end of the grass area.
6. Turn left towards the pond.
7. Walk around the pond to the right, and back to the start of your walk. Turning left here would bring you back to the play park.
8. A path link can form a longer route on tarmac paths from point 6 turn right then when you meet the Borders Abbeys Way stay on the tarmac path to the left and turn left to follow the path beside the A6091 and return to your start point.

Further information: please see the Paths around Galashiels booklet at www.scotborders.gov.uk/walking

Abbotsford House
Built in 1824, Abbotsford House was the home of writer Sir Walter Scott. A new visitor centre adjacent to the house was opened in 2012.
Easy Access Paths in the Scottish Borders

Lochs and Reservoirs - Lindean Loch, near Selkirk

WalkIt

A short wheelchair access path takes you to a loch-side platform for views over the loch. The loch has interesting flora and birdlife. The path around the loch is 1.5km/1 mile long and is a low level rough countryside path.

Facilities: Bench seats on main path, information panels.

Parking: Area with wheelchair access.

Toilets: Nearest wheelchair access RADAR lock toilet - Selkirk, Galashiels.

How to get there: From the A7 between Selkirk and Galashiels, take the road at Lindean past Lindean Village Hall and continue for about a mile or so. Go straight on at a junction and you will reach Lindean Loch.

The Grasslands and wetlands are rich in plant species and the open water contains a diverse mix of aquatic invertebrates. There is a platform for a view of the loch and where pond dipping can be done.

The reeds and sedges provide cover for water rail, reed bunting and sedge warbler and otter frequent the area. Look out for Northern marsh orchid, bogbean, Greater spearwort, Tufted duck, dragonflies, Mute swan and moorhen.

Further information: please see Paths around Selkirk booklet at www.scotborders.gov.uk/walking or for wildlife info visit www.scotborders.gov.uk/biodiversity

Lochs 3

Lochs and Reservoirs - Bemersyde Moss

Bemersyde Moss near St Boswells is a large marsh area with birds. Geese roost here in winter. You can birdwatch from an easy access bird-hide, the ramp is on your left from where you park. There is information on birds inside the hide.

Toilets: Nearest RADAR lock wheelchair access toilet is in Melrose.

How to get there: From Scotts View go south into Bemersyde village and turn left. Go straight on at the first junction with the Moss visible below the road. Turn left past Whitrig Hill. Park on road verge adjacent to the nature reserve.

Further information:
Scottish Wildlife Trust
Tel: 0131 312 7765
www.swt.org.uk

---

---

Lochs 4&5

Lochs and Reservoirs - St Marys Loch and Megget Reservoir

St Marys Loch

Lochs with views of surrounding hillsides. St Marys Loch is the largest loch in the Scottish Borders. It was formed during the last ice age by glaciers. Loch of the Lowes is at the South end of the loch. There is a cafe, views and picnic area at this area.

Toilets: RADAR wheelchair access toilets adjacent to the Glen Café, Loch of the Lowes. Ramp is fairly steep.

Megget Reservoir

Megget Reservoir is nearby. It is possible to drive a car up to the reservoir where there is a car parking area.

The road between Megget and Talla is not suitable for coaches. There are information boards, which are on a grass area, with a kerb, adjacent to the car park. Information on the water supply and local wildlife. Views across the reservoir.

---

© Crown copyright and database right 2012. All rights reserved. Scottish Borders Council Ordnance Survey Licence LA100023423.